11B. REVIEW OF FIXED TERM AND CASUAL EMPLOYMENT

11B.1 Fixed Term Contract Circumstances

- (a) An Employer may only employ a person as a fixed term contract employee in the following circumstances:
 - (i) Accrued days off where staffing arrangements are such that it is impractical to maintain a pool of staff to provide Accrued days off leave cover.
 - (ii) Annual Leave where staffing arrangements are such that it is impractical to maintain a pool of staff to provide Annual Leave cover.
 - (iii) To cover one-off periods of relief including backfill for temporary deployments including secondments or higher duties arrangements, or any form of leave available under this Agreement.
 - (iv) To work on a special project or program with a finite life.
 - (v) The substantive occupant agrees to work part-time for one or more periods.
 - (vi) To temporarily fill a vacancy while a recruitment process is undertaken.
 - (vii) Where it is necessary to establish or maintain a pool of permanent staff vacancies in order to subsequently redeploy permanent staff who are displaced or potentially displaced by organisational change.
 - (viii) Where it is necessary to temporarily fill vacancies because a decision has been made which will affect the number of permanent staff vacancies.
 - (ix) If the person is in Australia on a visa with a fixed duration.
 - (x) Workers' compensation.
 - (xi) Any other situations as agreed between the Employer and the Union, either at an industry or local level.
- (b) The contract of employment of a fixed term contract employee will include the starting and finishing dates of employment, or in lieu of a finishing date, the specific circumstances relating to the situations as prescribed in subclause 11B.1(a).

11B.2 For the purposes of this clause "impractical" means not operationally viable because of factors such as the cost, the size or location of a facility.

11B.3 For the purposes of this clause "organisational change" means changes arising from the commissioning of Fiona Stanley Hospital, the commissioning of Midland Health Campus and consequential recommissioning of metropolitan hospitals.

11B.4 The parties will commence, 6 months prior to the expiry of this Agreement, consultation about the application of 11B.1(a)(vii).

11B.5 The Employer, on request of the Union, will review the use of fixed term contracts in a specified workplace to identify opportunities for the Employer to achieve its preference to employ on a permanent basis. The outcome of the review of fixed term contracts and the corresponding positions to be filled permanently, including the timeframe, will be provided to the Union.

11B.6 Review – Fixed Term Contract Employment

- (a) For the purposes of this subclause:
 - (i) an “eligible fixed term employee” is a fixed term employee who:
 - (A) has completed two or more years of service in the same or a similar role under one or more fixed term contracts with the same Employer without a break in service; and
 - (B) who does not have a documented record of unsatisfactory performance in their role.
 - (ii) a “break in service” is a break between contracts of more than 30 days, attributable to fluctuating demand or business need, or taken at the request of the employee.

Any period between contracts for which payment in lieu of leave has been made by the Employer does not count towards calculating the 30-day period.

If a question arises in a dispute under this Agreement as to whether a break between contracts constitutes a break in service, it is the responsibility of the Employer to demonstrate the break was attributable to fluctuating demand or business need, or in response to the employee’s request, and was not imposed to avoid an obligation to review or permanently appoint an employee.

- (b) An Employer must, no later than three months after:
 - (i) the date on which an employee became an eligible fixed term employee;
 - (ii) for an employee who is an eligible fixed term employee on the date of registration of this Agreement – that date; and
 - (iii) for an employee who continues to be employed on a fixed term contract in the same or a similar role without a break in service – each second anniversary of the date referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii); review the contract and the actual circumstances of the work being performed by the employee at the time of the review to determine whether the fixed term employment meets a circumstance listed in subclause 11B.1.

- (c) If, after carrying out a review referred to in paragraph 11B.6(b), the Employer determines the fixed term employment does not meet a circumstance listed in subclause 11B.1, the Employer must appoint the employee permanently to the same position at their current FTE.
- (d) The requirement at paragraph 11B.6(c) does not apply if the Chief Executive (CE), or CE’s delegate, of the relevant Employer certifies in writing that the role performed by the fixed term employee can no longer be funded from within the Employer’s approved salary expense limits.

- (e) If, after carrying out a review referred to in paragraph 11B.6(b), the Employer determines the fixed term contract meets a circumstance listed in subclause 11B.1, the Employer must give the employee in writing no later than two weeks after the date of completing the review:
 - (i) a statement of the review outcome and the reasons for it; and
 - (ii) a plain-language summary of an Employer's obligations under this subclause to appoint eligible fixed term employees to permanent employment, and the actions the employee can take if they disagree with the review outcome.
- (f) For the purposes of paragraph 11B.6(b), if an eligible fixed term employee is employed under multiple fixed term contracts with the same Employer, each contract and the circumstances of the work being performed under it is to be reviewed individually.

11B.7 An Employer may only engage a person as a casual employee in the following circumstances:

- (a) if the hours and patterns of work are not regular and systematic;
- (b) hourly, for a period of up to one week in each engagement; or
- (c) in any other situation agreed between the Employer and the Union.

11B.8 Review – Casual Employment

- (a) For the purposes of this subclause:
 - (i) an 'eligible casual employee' is an employee described as a casual employee who:
 - (A) has completed 12 months of service with the same Employer in the same or a similar role without a break in service; and
 - (B) does not have a documented record of unsatisfactory performance in their role.
 - (ii) a 'break in service' is a period of more than 60 days during which a person is not engaged by the Employer to perform work, attributable to fluctuating demand or business need or taken at the request of the employee.

If a question arises in a dispute under this Agreement as to whether a break between contracts constitutes a break in service, it is the responsibility of the Employer to demonstrate the break was attributable to fluctuating demand or business need, or in response to an employee request, and was not imposed to avoid an obligation to review or permanently appoint an employee.

- (b) The Employer must review the circumstances of an eligible casual employee's engagement to determine whether or not they meet a circumstance described in subclause 11B.7 no later than three months after:
 - (i) the date on which the employee completes 12 months of service with the same Employer in a same or similar role without a break in service;

- (ii) for an employee who is an eligible casual employee on the date of registration of this Agreement – that date; and
 - (iii) for an employee who has continued to be engaged as a casual employee without a break in service – each anniversary of the date referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii).
- (c) If the Employer determines an employee’s engagement does not meet a circumstance listed in subclause 11B.7, the Employer must:
- (i) establish a new permanent position reflecting the duties of the casual role at the FTE equivalent to the average hours worked by the employee for the preceding 12 months, unless:
 - (A) the CE (or delegate) of the relevant Employer certifies in writing that the role performed by the employee:
 - has been wholly or substantially externally funded and the funding source will no longer be available; or
 - can no longer be funded from within the Employer’s approved salary expense limits;
 - (B) the average weekly hours worked by the employee for the preceding 12 months are less than the minimum shift hours allowed to be worked by a permanent employee under this Agreement; and
 - (ii) no later than two weeks after the date of the review:
 - (A) advise the employee in writing of the review outcome and the reasons for it; and
 - (B) if the Employer has established a new position, and unless a circumstance in paragraph 11B.8(d) applies, offer the employee permanent appointment to the newly established position.
- (d) The employee whose engagement is the subject of a review resulting in the establishment of a new position is entitled to be appointed permanently to the position unless the employee is in Australia on a visa with a fixed duration.
- (e) If, after carrying out a review referred to in paragraph 11B.8(b), the Employer determines the casual engagement meets a circumstance described in subclause 11B.7, the Employer must give the employee in writing no later than two weeks after the date of completing the review:
- (i) a statement of the review outcome and the reasons for it; and
 - (ii) a plain-language summary of an Employer’s obligations under this clause to establish permanent positions where employees have been working regular and systematic hours over a qualifying 12-month period, and the actions the employee can take if they disagree with the review outcome.

11B.9 In addition to the reviews of individual eligible casual employees provided at subclause 11B.8(b), the Employer, in consultation with the Union, will regularly review the use of casual employment at each Hospital in order to identify opportunities for the Employer to achieve its preference for the employment of staff on a regular and continuing full time or part time permanent basis. Such reviews will occur at least once in every calendar year. The outcomes of reviews of casual employment will be provided to the Union.

11C. REVIEW OF CONTRACTED HOURS

11C.1 A part-time employee may request a review of their contracted hours. The Employer will respond with a decision resulting from the review within 21 days of the request being received by the Employer.

11C.2 Any proposed variation to an employee's contracted hours must consider any hours that the employee has been rostered to work in excess of their contracted hours, excepting any shifts worked to cover absence arising from the situations described in subclause 11B.1(a).

11C.3 If the Employer declines to change the employee's contracted hours, the Employer will set out reasons for the decision in writing.

12. SUPPORTED WAGE EMPLOYMENT

against the Employer which is subject to the provisions of Workers' Compensation legislation or any provision of this Agreement relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their current employment.

- (iii) The clause also does not apply to employers in respect of their facility, program, undertaking, services or the like which receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 (Cth) and fulfils the dual role of service provider and sheltered employer to people with disabilities who are in receipt of or are eligible for a Disability Support Pension.

20%	20%

40%	40%
50%	50%
60%	60%
70%	70%
80%	80%

(Provided that the minimum amount payable will be not less than $95 per week).

*Where a person's assessed capacity is 10%, they will receive a high degree of assistance and support.

(d) Assessment of Capacity

For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the Agreement rate to be paid to an employee under this Agreement, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument by either:

- (i) the Employer and the Union in consultation with the employee or, if desired by any of these; or
- (ii) the Employer and an accredited Assessor from a panel agreed by the parties to the Agreement and the employee.

(e) Lodgement of Assessment Instrument

- (i) All assessment instruments under the conditions of this clause, including the appropriate percentage of the Agreement wage to be paid to the employee, will be lodged by the Employer with the Registrar of the Commission.

(ii) All assessment instruments will be agreed and signed by the parties to the assessment, provided that where the Union is not a party to the assessment, it will be referred by the Registrar to the Union by certified mail and will take effect unless an objection is notified to the Registrar within 10 working days.

(f) Review of Assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage should be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review will be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

(g) Other Terms and Conditions of Employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage will apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the provisions of the clause will be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other employees covered by this Agreement paid on a pro-rata basis.

(h) Workplace Adjustment

An Employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this clause will take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other employees in the area.

(i) Trial Period

(i) In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made, an Employer may employ a person under the provisions of this clause for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding 4 weeks) may be needed.

(ii) During the trial period the assessment of capacity will be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship will be determined.

(iii) The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period will be no less than the amount prescribed by the relevant authority

(iv) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialled.

(v) Where the Employer and employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment will be entered into based on the outcome of assessment under subclause 12.1(d).

13. HOURS OF WORK

13.1 (a) The ordinary hours of work of all full-time employees will be worked under one of the following work cycles:

(i) 19 Day Month work cycle

A cycle of 76 hours over 9 days per fortnight with the tenth day to be taken as an unpaid rostered day off.

(iii) Accrued days off work cycle

(A) A minimum period of 1 week made up of 5 consecutive Accrued days off in conjunction with a period of Annual Leave or at a time mutually acceptable to the Employer and the employee.

(B) Where the Employer and employee mutually agree, Accrued days off can be taken in single day absences.

(iv) By agreement between the Employer and employee work cycles of 38 hours per week or 76 hours per fortnight may be implemented.

Before reaching an agreement, the Union will be informed by the employer of the proposal to change and given reasonable opportunity to participate in the negotiations leading to agreement. Union involvement in the process does not mean the consent of the Union is required prior to the change to this work cycle.

(b) (i) During the course of employment, an employee may request to work under a work cycle provided at subclause 13.1(a)(i) to (iv).

(ii) The Employer will give genuine consideration to an employee's request, subject to operational requirements.

(iv) If the requested work cycle cannot be accommodated, the Employer will advise the employee of their decision, including reasons for the decision.

(c) (i) Alternative work cycles may be implemented by agreement between the Union and Employer.

(ii) Any agreement will particularise how the alternative work cycle will operate and will be reduced to writing. The written agreement may operate to override any provisions of this Agreement where this is the express intention of the parties.

(iii) If the Employer proposes an alternative work cycle for the whole of a Hospital or for part of a Hospital, a Consultative Committee will be established under Clause 48 - Consultation Mechanism.

(iv) A proposed alternative work cycle may be introduced after a secret postal ballot of affected employees, including where practicable those who are absent on leave, if a simple majority of the employees who are affected agree to the change.

- (v) A proposed alternative work cycle ballot will be conducted by, and the results scrutinised and declared by, two returning officers. One returning officer will be nominated by the Employer. One returning officer will be nominated by the Union.
- (vi) If a proposal is agreed by a majority of effected employees the change will be implemented with 4 weeks' notice.
- (d) The Employer is supportive of flexible work arrangements in accordance with the relevant policy and/or procedures, where practicable. The Employer will give genuine consideration to a request for a flexible work arrangement, and such requests will not be unreasonably refused.

13.2 Maximum Daily Ordinary Hours

- (a) The spread of hours of work will be from the time an employee signs on duty at the beginning of a shift until the employee signs off at the completion of the shift.
- (b) The spread of hours of any one shift cannot exceed 10 hours.
- (c) The exception to this is where a spread of hours exceeding 10 hours but not exceeding 11.5 hours, allows for the work to be undertaken without additional staff and/or expense.

13.3 Substituting an Accrued Day Off

Where the Employer and employee have agreed to substitute the employee's Accrued day off for another day, the Accrued day off will become an ordinary working day.

13.4 Maximum number of consecutive rostered days of work

Where practicable, an employee's ordinary hours of work will not be rostered over more than 6 consecutive days.

13.5 Rosters

- (a) A roster setting out the ordinary hours of work will be displayed by the Employer where it can conveniently and readily be seen by all affected employees.
- (b) The roster will show the start and finish times for each employee as well as breaks of shift; and each employee's rostered days off.

13.6 Posting and Changes to Rosters

- (a) The roster will be posted at least 14 days before it comes into operation.
- (b) The roster may be altered at any time because of a circumstance which the Employer could not have reasonably foreseen, including where an employee is absent from duty without prior notice on account of illness or other reason, or where an emergency renders it necessary.
- (c) Where practicable, the employee concerned will be notified before the end of the shift immediately prior to the changed shift or on the day before the changed shift commences.

13.7 Roster of Accrued days off

- (a) A roster for Accrued days off will be posted at least 4 weeks before it comes into operation.
- (b) A roster for Accrued days off may allow an employee to take Accrued days off before they become due.

13.8 Minimum 10 hour break between ordinary hours of work

- (a) An employee will have a minimum of 10 hours break between the finish of one shift and the commencement of the next shift.
- (b) The exception to this is at the change of roster, where an employee may complete a night shift and be next rostered for afternoon shift.

13.9 Hospitals where daily average of occupied beds does not exceed 4

There will be no fixed hours of duty in Hospitals where the daily average of occupied beds does not exceed 4. This daily average will be calculated on the actual inpatient days only; outpatients and babies are not to be included for the purposes of these calculations.

13.10 Where the Employer is considering changes to rosters, regardless of whether the change is “major” or not, the following principles will be applied:

- (a) Before any roster change is implemented the Employer will take into account the views and concerns of the affected employees. This will be done in an open and transparent fashion. Conditions outside the workplace (e.g. work life balance, family responsibilities, personal safety and public transport) must be taken into account.
- (b) Where the Employer identifies or is advised of an adverse impact of a change to an employee the Employer will take reasonable steps to eliminate that impact or where this is not possible will take reasonable steps to mitigate the adverse consequences.
- (c) Rostering must balance employee and Employer needs while recognising that the priority is the provision of quality patient care, operational efficiency and effectiveness.
- (d) Rostering practices must serve to protect individual employees against discriminatory action.
- (e) An employee may be represented by the Union at any stage.

13.11 Introduction of major changes to rostering

- (a) If the Employer proposes to make a major change to rostering for the whole of a Hospital or for part of a Hospital that will have significant effects on employees, a Consultative Committee will be established under Clause 48 - Consultation Mechanism.
- (b) When considering a major change to rostering the Employer will have regard to the impact on the work life balance and family responsibilities of employees and seek to balance these factors with the overriding consideration of operational efficiency and effectiveness.

- (c) Before a definite decision is made and any change is implemented the Employer will take into account the views and concerns of the affected employees. This will be done in an open and transparent fashion. Conditions outside the workplace (e.g. work life balance, family responsibilities, personal safety and public transport) must be taken into account.
- (d) Where the Employer identifies or is advised of an adverse impact of a change to an employee, the Employer will take reasonable steps to eliminate that impact or, where this is not possible, take reasonable steps to mitigate the adverse consequences.
- (e) An employee may be represented by the Union at any stage.
- (f) The Union will be notified in writing, as soon as a definite decision to make a major change to rostering is made. Such notification will be made at least 2 weeks before any further action, including meetings or employee consultations commence.
- (g) Through the Consultative Committee process:
 - (i) Alternative proposals that may meet operational requirements may be developed and comment invited from all affected employees.
 - (ii) Expected benefits and possible detrimental effects of any proposal will be identified.
 - (iii) Mechanisms will be established to allow for effective communication between staff and the Employer and full discussion about any proposal.
 - (iv) A secret ballot of all affected employees, (including those on leave or workers' compensation who can be contacted as far as reasonably practicable), will be conducted by the consultative committee before any proposal is introduced. The Union will be notified 14 days before the holding of the ballot.
 - (v) If a proposal is agreed by a majority of effected employees in the ballot the change will be implemented with 4 weeks' notice.
 - (vi) An officer of the Union is entitled to attend, and address, any employee communication session or committee meeting convened pursuant to this subclause.
 - (vii) An alternative process may take place by agreement between the Union and Employer.
- (h) If the Employer and the Union disagree on whether a proposed change is a major change the Commission may, pursuant to Clause 54 - Dispute Settlement Procedure, determine whether the process specified by subclause 13.11 is applicable.
- (i) Where the Employer has complied with the provisions of this clause and nevertheless proposes to implement a change that has been rejected by an employee ballot the Commission may, pursuant to Clause 54 - Dispute Settlement Procedure, determine whether the change will be implemented.

- (j) In dealing with disputes about a major change to rostering, the Commission will have regard to the preferences of employees while recognising that the priority is the provision of quality patient care, operational efficiency and effectiveness.

13.12 Allocation of Deficit Roster Hours

- (a) The Employer may develop a process or procedures for the allocation of deficit roster hours that may become available from time to time.
- (b) Where operationally viable, the process or procedures developed for the allocation of deficit roster hours will prioritise the allocation of those hours to permanent staff.

13.13 Permanent Relief Pools

- (a) The purpose of a permanent relief pool is to assist the backfill of regular and planned leave absences, to ensure continuity of service delivery and management of workloads while also facilitating access to and management of leave.
- (b) Where operationally viable, the Employer may introduce the use of a permanent relief pool in relation to any of the occupations covered by this Agreement.
- (c) Subclauses 13.10 and 13.11 will not apply to rostering of employees from permanent relief pools.

14. HOURS OF WORK - ACCRUED DAYS OFF

14.1 Accrued days off may be accumulated provided that, where an employee has accumulated 11 or more days off, the Employer may direct the employee in any year to take any number of days off in order to progressively reduce the accumulated days off to 10, provided that the Employer must give not less than:

- (a) 24 hours' notice to the employee where 1 Accrued day off is to be taken.
- (b) 2 weeks' notice is given to the employee where 2 or more Accrued days off are to be taken consecutively.

14.2 Accrued days off can be taken at any time where agreed to by the Employer and employee.

14.3 The Employer will respond to an application for an Accrued day off within 14 days of the date the application is submitted by the employee.

14.4 Accrued days off may be cashed out in accordance with Clause 43 - Cashing Out Leave Entitlements.

14.5 Prior to the commencement of this Agreement, penalties for Accrued days off were paid using one of the following two arrangements:

- (a) Average of Last Two Pays Method
 - (i) The same method used for calculating the shift penalties in lieu of the Annual Leave loading for shift workers. The average of penalties paid in the two pays periods prior to the employee actually taking an Accrued day off are calculated and the employee is paid the ordinary time rate plus the average penalty amount.

(ii) This method applied at Fremantle Hospital, Royal Perth Hospital, Osborne Park Hospital and Princess Margaret Hospital.

(b) Paid as Earned Method

(i) Penalties paid on actual hours worked. For example in the case of a full time employee who works an 8 hour shift, the employee is paid 8 hours of shift penalty loading plus the ordinary time rate for 7.6 hours with the balance of time actually worked (0.4 hours) being credited towards an Accrued day off. When an Accrued day off is taken, payment is made at the ordinary time rate because the shift penalty loading has already been paid.

(ii) This method applied at Hospitals other than those cited in subclause 14 5(a)(ii).

14.6 Uniform Method of Payment

(a) All employees will transfer onto the Average of Last Two Pays Method effective from the first pay period on or after the date of registration of this Agreement or such later date the Employer determines is operationally practicable (“the date of transfer”).

(b) For those employees who have been paid under the Paid as Earned Method, Accrued days off which have accrued prior to the date of transfer will continue to be paid at ordinary time when taken. Accrued days off which accrue after the date of transfer will be paid in accordance with the Average of Last Two Pays Method. Accrued days off accrued prior to the date of transfer will be taken first.

15. BREAKS

15.1 An employee cannot work more than 5 hours without a break.

(a) There will be no more than 3 breaks in any shift including meal breaks.

(b) A meal break will be for a period of at least 30 minutes but not greater than 1 hour for each meal.

(c) The exception is that night shift employees will work a straight shift of 8 hours which will include a paid meal break during which the employee will be on call.

15.2 Tea Breaks

(a) Employees will take only 1 tea break per shift for shifts of 4 hours or longer.

(b) Employees on shifts of less than 4 hours will not be entitled to a tea break.

(c) A tea break will be a maximum of 15 minutes.

15.3 An employee who is employed for greater than 4 hours is entitled to an unpaid meal break of not less than 30 minutes and not more than 1 hour as well as the tea break.

- (b) The exception to this is where the day worked is a Public Holiday then double time and one half will be paid.

16.3 Time off instead of payment for overtime

- (a) When overtime is required because of the failure of another employee to report for duty and when agreed by both the employee and the Employer, time off equivalent to the time worked may be granted instead of payment for overtime.
- (b) The exception is where a full additional shift is required then overtime rates will be paid.
- (c) Overtime worked on any day stands alone.
- (d) An employee who is recalled to work after leaving the workplace at the end of their shift will be paid a minimum of 3 hours at overtime rates.
- (e) Where an employee does not have the 10 hour break as required in subclause 13.8 the employee will be paid overtime until the employee has a 10 hour break between shifts.
- (f) Where the agreed length of a shift is extended past 8 hours per day in accordance with Clause 13 - Hours of Work, overtime will be payable for time worked in excess of the rostered shift.
- (g) In the case of part-time employees overtime will be payable after the ordinary rostered hours worked have been worked for that day.

- (a) An employee is on call when the employee is given a written direction by the Employer, which may be in the form of a published roster, to remain at such a place or otherwise be immediately contactable by telephone or other means during the hours when the employee is not otherwise on duty in case of a call out requiring an immediate return to duty.

- (d) Where it is determined that the means of contact is to be by mobile telephone, pager or similar device, the Employer will provide the employee with the device at no charge to the employee.
- (e) An employee on call who is recalled to work for any purpose will be paid at the appropriate rate of pay prescribed by Clause 16 - Overtime for the period of the recall.
- (f) Where an employee on call is recalled to work in accordance with subclause 16.4(e) then the employee is deemed to have commenced work at the time of the notification of the recall.

16.5 Overtime for casual employees

- (a) A casual employee shall receive overtime in the following circumstances:
 - (i) for hours worked in excess of 76 ordinary hours over a fortnightly cycle.
 - (ii) where additional hours are accepted immediately prior to, or during their rostered shift on any day and any or all of the additional hours accepted exceed 10 hours in any one day.
