

IT IS AGAINST THE LAW
to sell or supply
nitrous oxide products
to anyone who is not an approved recipient

IT IS AGAINST THE LAW

to sell nitrous oxide products
to anyone who is not an approved recipient or purchasing on their behalf

Evidence of authority to purchase may be required

IT IS AGAINST THE LAW

to sell nitrous oxide products
to anyone who is not an approved recipient

An approved recipient is defined as:

- The proprietor (as defined in the Food Act 2008 section 8) of a food business registered under the Food Act 2008 Part 9;
- the holder of a licence granted under the Liquor Control Act 1988 (other than a liquor store licence as defined in section 3(1) of that Act);
- a college established under the Vocational Education and Training Act 1996 section 35;
- a government school or non-government school, as those terms are defined in the School Education Act 1999 section 4;
- a university established under written law;
- a person who carries on a business of providing cooking education and training.

Evidence of authority to purchase may be required
